

From voices to choices

Program working session on how to expand the influence of crisis-affected people

Prep reading – need to read (see below for “nice to read” & “nice to listen”):

- From Voices2Choices, Expanding crisis-affected people’s influence over aid decisions (IARAN 2018) – Summary and page 8
- What is ReflACTION all about.

Programme

Monday evening: optional networking dinner with the Emergency Appeals Alliance at Schlemmer, Lange Houtstraat 17, Den Haag.

Day 1	Session title	Method
08.30	Registration, coffee/tea	Stichting Vluchteling, Laan van NOI 131, Den Haag. Tram stop Oostinje (tram 2 and 6).
9.00	Getting started	Participants & programme
9.45	Setting the scene	Collectively exploring “From Voices to Choices” with kick-off inputs from: Mariana Merelo Lobo (IARAN), Smruti Patel (Global Mentoring Initiative) and Roland Hansen (Malteser International)
10.30	Coffee/tea break
11.00	Sensing into new humanitarian action (1)	Local2Global: a case study by Nils Carstensen (DanChurchAid)
12.00	Define and explore main topics (1)	Identifying the main issues (key elements) of locally-led crisis response
12.30	Lunch
13.30	Define and explore main topics (2)	Small groups explore in-depth core elements for change
15.15	Coffee/tea break
15.45	Sensing into new humanitarian action (2)	Overcoming obstacles when introducing prototypes: A case study by Nils Carstensen (DanChurchAid)
16.30	Summarize & set targets for day 2	Plenary discussion findings small groups.
17.00	Closure day 1	Drinks
19.00	Joint dinner	Bij Mauce , Theresiastraat 14, Den Haag

Day 2	Session title	Method
9.00	Getting started
9.45	Ways forward (1)	Small groups develop concrete strategies on the pathways identified during day 1 and look into the underlying drivers and blockades.
11.30	Inspiration loop	Mini-info/discussion sessions in parallel: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • PBA: Partnership Brokering Association; • Oxfam Novib: Empowering Local & National Humanitarian actors (ELNHA); • RefI ACTION: Innovation Forum on locally-led crisis response and displacement.
12.30	Lunch
13.30	Ways forward (2)	Findings from small groups on what should be addressed first, what could be incentives for change and how could change be initiated?
15.00	Coffee/tea break
15:15	Action Planning	RefI ACTION upcoming milestones (open for all). If KUNO-participants wish for their 'own' next-steps session; of course we could arrange it.
16.00	Closure

Prep reading – nice to read:

- Local2Global 1-pager: What does survivor and community-led crisis responses look like?
- People First Impact Method Introduction – 2 pager
- Localization examined, An ICVA Briefing Paper (ICVA 2018)
- A design experiment: imagining alternative humanitarian action (ODI 2018)
- Localisation in Practice – Emerging Indicators and practical recommendations (2018)

Prep listening – nice to hear:

- Localization: Will the Sulawesi response be a game-changer? Podcast of KUNO based on an introduction of Jemilah Mahmood (IFRC) on 11 April 2019.